

'Second tier' projects

'First tier' projects

Tamar

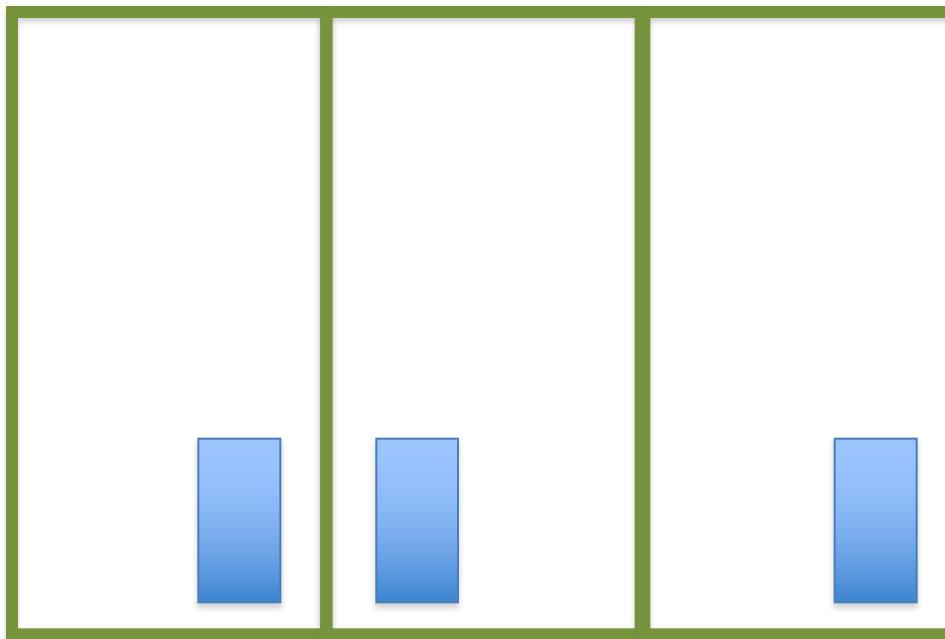

Starter horticulture units

1-3 acres + infrastructure

Shared equipment

Training

Access to markets

Produce co-ops

- Collectivise to:
 - Create Volume & Continuity of supply
 - Access to different markets
 - Reduce competition at the gate

- Reduce costs through:
 - Sharing equipment
 - Bulk purchasing

Tamar

Food Hub

Open source
International, with CIC in UK
many active hubs / shops in UK,
.... and growing fast

18% mark-up on local producers
30% mark-up on wholesale
0.25% of turnover to OFN UK CIC

OPEN FOOD NETWORK UK

SHOPS MAP PRICING ABOUT BLOG SUPPORT

Shopping @ Tamar Valley Food ...

The screenshot shows the Tamar Valley Food Hub website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Notices, Shop (which is underlined), About, Producers, Contact, and Groups. A search bar is below the navigation. On the left, there's a sidebar for "Tamar Valley Food Hubs Callington". The main content area displays a product listing for "1.8kg Organic Spinach" from "Coombe Lynher Farm". It shows a thumbnail image of the spinach, the product name, its origin, a brief description, the price (£9.56), and a "£0.00" button. To the right, there's a "Next order closing in 20 hours" message, a "Ready for Friday 6th of November" button, and a "Filter by" section with categories like Bread & Baking, Dairy, Eggs, Meat, Fish, Other Food, Tea & Coffee, and Preserves, Sauces & Spreads.

This week we have over 60 producers, 1500 product lines

TGL provides:

- Collective Identity
- Strategic management
- Shared Insurance
- Shared bank account
- Advice & Experience
- Community

